You will understand the name, “A Point of View” as soon as you arrive at this exquisite beach home sitting directly adjacent to Seaside with porches that provide spectacular views of the gulf as well as wonderful overviews of the community of Seaside. This brand new, luxury, four-story beach home was designed to take care of your every need and to meet your every expectation. Decorated to enhance the creative design of this lovely beach home, you will be delighted with the many extras found here.

The ground floor features an efficiency bedroom with Queen murphy bed and full bath, plus a loft area for the kids. You will find three bedrooms with baths on the second floor—a master with a king, a guest room with a queen, and a bunkroom with two sets of twin bunks. The spacious great room that includes the living/dining and kitchen areas is located on the third floor to take advantage of the spectacular views. There is also a second master suite on this floor with a Queen and adjoining bath. The private elevator continues all the way from the ground floor to the 4th floor tower room - making this house accessible to everyone in your group. Enjoy the spectacular views from the tower room with wall-to-wall windows and a cocktail bar ledge encircling the room. Relax at the end of the day with a glass of wine as you enjoy the incredible views from the wide porches on every level.

Walk to Seaside from this elegant beach home, sitting just 100 yards from the sand. When you're not at the beach, relax by your private, heated pool (12x24 with oversized spa) surrounded by lush vegetation and privacy fence. Take advantage of nearby bike paths to visit local shops and restaurants. Parking for 3 to 4 cars with 2-bay carport. Private elevator. Fireplace in living room. (For a larger groups, also rent “Azure Leisure” sitting right next door.)
